Coordinated Entry & Outreach Specialist Job Description

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

The Coordinated Entry & Outreach Specialist is responsible for arranging initial supportive services and housing for homeless individuals and families who are homeless. Under the direction of the Macon County CoC Community Resource Coordinator, the Coordinated Entry & Outreach Specialist implements the initial contact system for delivery of services to clients in a manner that uses existing resources and that lead to self-sufficiency and permanent housing for clients. This person is responsible for the initial processing of homeless clients for services within the Macon County Continuum of Care (CoC). This includes such services as: intake, prevention, intervention, housing location, and service coordination and linkage.

The Coordinated Entry & Outreach Specialist assures that clients are moved smoothly through the initial application process, and after placement, works with the Client Services Supervising Coordinator and Housing Advocates, and other providers to assure that homeless clients have access to appropriate housing as they move toward permanent housing and self-sufficiency.

EXAMPLES OF WORK

- Acts as the first point of contact for the CoC Coordinated Entry system,
- Performs the initial intake, assesses immediate needs and makes appropriate referral and provides follow up services to clients
- Meets off site with clients, if necessary to provide services
- Visits and offers services where the homeless populations frequent, as needed
- Participates in weekly street outreach
- Attends the Continuum Homeless Action Team meetings, (CHAT) as needed
- Verifies homeless status for CoC Coordinated Entry system per HUD requirements
- Working with the Coordinated Entry/Outreach Coordinator on data entry and reporting
- Maintains contact with all housing providers in area and works to place clients in appropriate option as quickly as possible
- Maintains accurate occupancy records of the housing options within the CoC
- Maintains contact with area landlords to assist with eviction prevention
- Provides information on housing availability to clients, project staff, and staff of other agencies
- Arranges for other agencies to provide direct services to clients
- Represents Homeward Bound in local networks and collaborative efforts
- Under the direction of the Program Director, negotiates payment of other agencies for services when necessary
- Attends and participates in regular meetings of program staff
- Performs other duties as required
